

ANGLES AT THE THEATRES.

"Arabian Nights" First Produced at the Standard.

Mr. Whiteside, a New Tragedian, at the Union Square.

dney Grundy's comedy "Arabian Nights" presented for the first time in this city at the Standard Theatre last night by Charles' man comedians. The organization was strengthened by the addition of Mrs. John, the mother of the famous Drew family; Mr. Holland, M. A. Kennedy, Thomas S. Charles, Abbe, T. G. Valentine and were in the cast. "Arabian Nights" preceded by a one-set play called "Sweet." A review of the performances will appear in tomorrow's "Evening World."

UNION SQUARE THEATRE. Mr. Whiteside, a brave young man, city unknown to this city, appeared at the Union Square Theatre and the role of the melancholy Dane in "Ari." Those who went to see found their occupation was gone. Mr. Whiteside gave an interesting performance. He is eat by any manner of means, but his is evenly balanced and carefully hed. His company was not quite up to mark.

EDMUND THATCHER.

"Texas Steer," one of the best things Texas has ever written, was revived last at the Bijou Theatre, where it made a spot two years ago. It will be remembered that the skit dealt with the advent of a Texas Congressman in Washington and the pictures presented are excellent.

LAUGHING. Tim Murphy played the of Mavereen Brander, in which he was before, and Miss Mabel Gilroy interest of the party.

HARLEM OPERA-HOUSE. "Sept" was played at Hammerstein's Harlema House last night, with Miss John Bennett in the leading role. Miss Bennett had plenty of criticism, as it is necessary, at this late date, to say about it. The audience was probably more interested in Little Collins, who "ta-ra-ra-boom-dey" in her accented style. This was probably vexatious, that is not surprising.

THEATRE OF MUSICAL THEATRE. "Sept" was the attraction at Hammerstein's Columbus Theatre in Harlem last.

In the east were Miss Ebie de Wolfe, Helen Stockwell, Miss Mary Pendleton, and Miss Jeanne Glavin. Miss Glavin, who has been at the Union Square during the past few weeks, scarcely seemed to please the Harlemites. The Harrison sisters were seen, and Banco Bella's Hungarian band gave two enjoyable concerts.

KOSTER & BIALS.

Miss Ruth Ward did her break dance at the Koster & Bial's concert last night, dazzling French dancing with two more legs than nature bestows upon ambitious woman.

The dance was very noisy, but Miss Ward's feet have to be seen to be believed.

Faquerie, the eccentric French girl; the All Brothers; Belle Black, M. and June Beauvois-Nancy, the Three Judges; Lillian Johnson, the "Milkmaid"; and "The Red-headed" were other attractions.

"baender" will be sung for the farewell performance and the benefit of Miss Verdi.

WORTH'S MUSEUM.

The chief attraction in the curio halls of Worth's Museum yesterday was Baldwin, the human suction-pump, who was reengaged for another year. The interest in him was watched by a large number of people. During the comic conjurer did some very amazing tricks, and Frank A. Bryant made his first appearance. The "Hobbit" gave a satirical monologue that was funny enough to cause a good deal of laughter.

DORIS' MUSEUM.

In Theatre No. 1 of Eighth Avenue was "A Comedy in English." The attraction consisted in Theatre No. 2, Harnett and Barnett's Vaudeville company supplying the entertainment, and in Theatre No. 3, the well-known family appeared in their own halls. The "Hobbit" gave steam engine, Prof. Frank's broom factory; Valetta, theatty whistler; Miss Ann, dressed as a "primitivistic siren"; Prof. Ferrer's rat race.

THE BEERS MUSEUM.

Three curiosities were the main features of the curio halls at Beers' Museum yesterday. Mr. Huter says that they were imported directly by him. They were a lion, a bear, and a tiger, all mounted upon as curiosities. They were exhibited by a keeper from Sumatra.

Mr. Huter, theatty whistler; Miss Ann, dressed as a "primitivistic siren"; Prof. Ferrer's rat race.

were enrolled last night. The regular quarterly meeting will take place next Monday.

The removal of show delegates to the Joint Executive Board of Painters and Varnishers of Brooklyn, it is thought, has given them that they have accepted the demands of the unions and the result of the movement for better conditions is that the unions are recruiting many new members.

Resolutions of protest have been adopted by the Labor League Assembly of Brooklyn against the demand of their employers that they should wear no whiskers. The result of this may be that the men will remain with the backbone will extend their organization until it embraces every man in the business and then they will be in a position to command a higher wage.

Painters' Union of this city has decided to allow members who have taken positions as foremen to remain in the union but they will be excluded from holding office.
